

Future Workplace: Stronger Individuals – Speakers' Profiles

Adj A/Prof Daniel Fung, Chief Executive Officer, Institute of Mental Health

Dr Fung has been the Chief Executive Officer of Singapore's Institute of Mental Health (IMH) since February 2021 and was Chairman of its Medical Board from 2011 to 2020. Dr Fung is an Adjunct Associate Professor at all three medical schools in Singapore.

Dr Fung is currently the President of the International Association for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Allied Professions and President Elect of the College of Psychiatrists, Academy of Medicine Singapore. He received the National Day (Public Service Administration (Bronze)) Award in 2017 and the National Medical Excellence Award (Team) in 2018 for his work on community and school based mental health.

Dr Tan Weng Mooi, Director (Programmes, InHealth) & Co-Head (Integrated Health Promotion), MOH Office for Healthcare Transformation

Dr Tan is a pharmacist by training with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree and Executive MBA. She has over 30 years of experience in the healthcare sector.

Dr Tan joined the Office for Healthcare Transformation at the Ministry of Health in November 2020. Her role is to co-lead the development of healthy precinct frameworks and leverage on technology to build up mental wellness and resiliency in the community and workplaces. Development of the healthy precinct framework involves co-creating a set of tools and integrated, coordinated initiatives and movement for health with various stakeholders in the community including businesses, social, healthcare, community partners and government agencies. The goal is to empower and enable individuals and their families including the community to lead a healthy, happy and active lifestyles with meaningful engagements.

Adj A/Prof Majeed Khader, Chief Psychologist, Ministry of Home Affairs & Director, Home Team Behavioural Sciences Centre

Dr Majeed is the Asian Director of the US-based Society of Police and Criminal Psychology and is an Adjunct Associate Professor at Nanyang Technological University and the National University of Singapore.

Over almost three decades, Dr Majeed has overseen the development of psychological services in the areas of resilience; employee and leadership selection; crisis negotiations; crime profiling; and crisis psychology in law enforcement settings. He has authored several books including 'Crime and Behaviour', 'How to Prepare for the Next Pandemic' and 'Cyber Forensic Psychology'.

For his contributions, Dr Majeed was awarded two National Day Public Administration Medals (Bronze and Silver). Dr Majeed is also an advocate for mental health and wellbeing in the public service and led several initiatives such as the Inter-Ministry Psychology Resources Group (IPRG) that looked into understanding the psycho-social impact of the pandemic on Singaporeans and work groups looking into migrant workers' mental health.

Moderator: Adj A/Prof Clare Yeo, Head CARE, MOH, & Senior Principal Clinical Psychologist, IMH